

BIBLE CHALLENGE

In 2 Corinthians 8:16-24, Paul gives a commendation for Titus, one of his fellow workers in the Gospel. But he also mentions another brother in Christ “whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches” (v18) and “whom we have often proved diligent in many things” (v22).

So here are some questions which will involve some fun research.

1. Who was this un-named brother in Christ?
2. What are some of the names that have been suggested by Bible commentators?
3. Why would Paul freely mention Titus by name but not the name of this highly respected brother?
4. Who do YOU think he was ... and why?

We would love to see your answers to this biblical conundrum. E-mail or text your answers to Steve and we will try to include them in a future newsletter. In some respects, the answer isn't that important. It won't affect any major Bible doctrine. But finding the answers to these questions will involve you in a fascinating Bible study mission!

With no ANZAC Day services happening this year, there has been a call for all Australians to stand at the end of their driveways, on their front lawns, porches or balconies at 6am on Saturday 25th April, with a lighted candle, to honour our veterans and active service personnel.

BOOK REVIEW from Pastor Steve

Have you ever heard of A.W.Tozer? This week, I read a book that contained 40 articles that he wrote for an evangelical magazine back in the 1960s. I was stirred by his depth of insight into the Scriptures and the cost and effects of truly loving God and following Christ. Tozer's most famous book was The Pursuit of God. Highly recommended.
